2.2. The Order shall constitute an offer by the Customer to purchase Goods pursuant to these Conditions. The Customer is responsible for ensuring that the terms of the Order and any applicable Specification submitted by the Customer are complete and accurate.

2.3. The Order shall only be deemed to be accepted when the Company issues a written acceptance of the Order (Order Confirmation), at which point the Contract shall come into existence.

2.6. Any advertising produced by the Company and any descriptions or illustrations contained in the Company's catalogues or brochures are produced for the sole purpose of giving an approximate idea of the Goods referred to in them. They shall not form part of the Contract nor have any contractual force.

2.7. A quotation for the Goods given by the Company shall not constitute an offer.

3. THE PRICE AND PAYMENT

3.1. The Price of the Goods shall be the price stated in the Order as accepted (or corrected) by the Order Confirmation.

3.3. The Customer shall pay the Price, VAT and any other amounts invoiced by such date stated in the Order Confirmation (due date).

3.4. The Company may, by giving notice to the Customer at any time before delivery, increase the price of the Goods to reflect any increase in the cost of the Goods that is due to:

3.5.2. appropriate any payment made by the Company to such of the Goods (or Goods supplied under any other contract between the Company and the Customer) as the Company may think fit and

3.5.3. charge interest on the amount unpaid (both before and after any judgement) at the rate of 4% per annum above Barclays Bank plc's base rate from time to time until payment in full is made (a part of a month being treated as a full month for the purpose of calculating interest).

3.6. The Customer shall pay all amounts due under the Contract in full without any set-off, counterclaim, deduction or withholding (except for any deduction or withholding required by law). The Company may at any time, without limiting any other rights or remedies it may have, set off any amount owing to it by the Customer against any amount payable by the Company to the Customer.

5.3. Any dates quoted for delivery of the Goods are approximate only and the time of delivery is not of the essence. 5.4. If the Company fails to deliver the Goods, its liability shall be limited to the costs and expenses incurred by the Customer in obtaining replacement goods of similar description and quality in the cheapest market available, less the price of the Goods. The Company shall have no liability for any failure to deliver the Goods to the extent that such failure is caused by a Force Majeure Event or the Customer's failure to provide the Company with adequate delivery instructions or any other instructions that are relevant to the supply of the Goods.

5.5. If the Customer fails to take or accept delivery of the Goods (unless such failure is caused by a Force Majeure Event or the Company's failure to comply with its obligations under the Contract) then the Company may (without affecting its other rights or remedies):-

- 5.5.1. store the Goods until actual delivery takes place and charge the Customer for all related costs and expenses (including insurance); or
